The Chicago Paper Company on Monroe Street Burned Out Last Night.

A Total Damage to It and Other Firms of About $125,000—The Losers.

An Enchanted Hero in the Damned Shape the Flames—The Incidents as Seen—Salvage.

The Chicago Paper Company and other Concerned Damaged About $125,000.

The Monroe-street business building No. 181 Monroe street was set scorched to the bad night, and a loss has been entailed upon one business occupants, especially the Chicago Paper Company, an extensive and well-known firm in that line of trade. The fire was discovered to have started in the basement, and it is there where the damage is done. The flames were first seen by the occupants of the building at about 11:30 o'clock, and were then issuing from the basement floor in the rear part of the building. The alarm was sent in from a box on the corner of Franklin and Monroe streets, and when the engines arrived on the scene the flames had already gained a great headway. The fire was confined to the basement, and it was there where the damage was done. The building was owned by Mr. Bowman, and was insured for $10,000. The Chicago Paper Company, who occupied the basement and the first floor, had a stock of paper on hand, which was damaged by fire, water, and smoke to the extent of $75,000. The company was insured for $50,000. The loss on the building will be about $5,000, and that on the stock of the Chicago Paper Company will be about $75,000. The insurance companies interested are the Home, of New York, for $10,000; the Phoenix, of Hartford, for $5,000; the Hartford, of Hartford, for $5,000; the Continental, of New York, for $5,000; the Commercial Union, of London, for $5,000; the Liverpool, London & Globe, of London, for $5,000; the Liverpool & London & Globe, of London, for $5,000; the Queen, of Liverpool, for $5,000; the Manchester, of Manchester, for $5,000; the Fire Association, of Philadelphia, for $5,000; the Insurance Company of North America, of Philadelphia, for $5,000; the Pennsylvania, of Philadelphia, for $5,000; the Western, of Toronto, for $5,000; the Ætna, of Hartford, for $5,000; the Imperial, of London, for $5,000; the Orient, of Hartford, for $5,000; the Fire Association, of Philadelphia

JUDGE BLODGETT'S

Charles Clark Miles Dyer, who had been ordered to appear in Judge Blodgett's court yesterday morning and show cause why he should not be attached for contempt, failed to put in an appearance when the court opened. After waiting about half an hour Colonel Dyer's counsel made a formal explanation for the non-appearance of his client.

Mr. A. H. Lewis said that Mr. Dyer's counsel had been under the impression that the case would not be reached yesterday, and that was the reason why he was not present. He would be present this morning at 10 o'clock. He would have been present yesterday, but he thought that another case would be reached first. The explanation was accepted by the court, and the matter was continued until this morning.

The case of Mary Ann Leman against Thomas Brand, which was set for trial before Judge Gary yesterday, was continued by consent until Dec. 8.

Mr. A. H. Lewis said that Mr. Dyer's counsel had asked him to appear in the Brand's behalf, and that the first he knew of the case was when he received a letter from Mr. Dyer's counsel. He would not be prepared to go to trial in the case before Dec. 8, as he had been engaged in the Supreme Court all week, and would be engaged there all next week. The Anti-Gobel Wrinkling Under the Recent Changes of Gen. Sherman.

He Alleges That the Counsel Is a Sea Monster, and Calls for Proof.

The Old Veteran Invites Grady and Inquires that His Time Is to Come.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 24.—[Special.]—The excitement over the morning interview with Jeff Davis, in which he replied to the statements regarding the late Gen. Sherman, during the address delivered by Gen. Grady, has subsided to a considerable extent, but the following letter from Mr. Davis will again stir up the matter:

Beauvoir, Miss., Nov. 24, 1890.—To the Associated Press: Dear Sir: I regret that I cannot answer the letter of Mr. [illegible] of the 22d inst. in the manner he requests. I am not in the habit of writing for the press, and have no time for it. I have only to say that I have not changed my opinion of Gen. Sherman's character as a man or as a soldier, and that I have not changed my opinion of the [illegible] of the late war between the States. I have no time for controversy, and will not be drawn into it. Very respectfully, Jefferson Davis.

A Short-Haul Passenger Rates.

Another considerable effort was made yesterday to bring about a restoration of short-haul passenger rates, but hopes are still entertained that an adjustment will be reached before the end of the week. The General Passenger Agents of the various roads met in session all day yesterday discussing the proposed agreement relative to the establishment and maintenance of rates in the territory lying between New York and Chicago on the one hand and Missouri River points on the other. It was stated that the Committee on Arbitration, which met in New York last week and fixed short-haul rates between Chicago and New York, would meet in the latter city to-day, and that one of the Western members of the committee would be present. Whether this will be the case or not, it is understood that the Western members will be prepared to accept the decision of the Committee on Arbitration, whatever it may be. It was stated that the Committee on Arbitration would meet in New York on Thursday, and that the Western members would be present. The Western members of the committee are Messrs. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1884.

Byron L. Wells of Milwaukee, Wis., one of the most prominent railroad builders in the Northwest, died yesterday morning.

The visiting cattlemen divided votes yesterday, one portion going to the Union Stock Yards and another to Congressman Farnham's two-mile farm near Elgin. All expressed themselves as delighted with what they saw.

Gustave Kraus, the discharged watchman suspected of the murderous assault in Chicago Sunday night upon L. D. Lee, the bookmaker, was captured yesterday and taken before the dying man, who identified him as his assailant.

Senator Harrity's committee, appointed to investigate the Pittsburg disturbances and report upon their petition for the protection of coal for heavy guns and naval vessels, began its work yesterday in the "Smoky City."

Tuesday is again being brought to bear upon Easter Harrison by the Democratic politicians to dissolve the friends of Congressman Finerty who are in the city-employ. The head of Gentile is said to be bending to rise to action.

Wayman Dunbrack has taken charge of Secretary Frelinghuysen's residency for Secretary of State under Cleveland one of the most interesting by the independents as civilians, on principle, and as much as to be opened up on the retiring Chile Senator all along the line.

All doubt as to an end regarding the fate of the Illinois State-House appropriation. It is carried by a majority of 3,000 without Cook County's vote, and by a majority of 40,000 with it, assuming that it received as many votes this year as were cast for it in Cook by Van Patten's judges.

The Swedish Benefactive Association is composed most Sunday in Paris. The Socialist newspapers are accusing the Government of suppressing last Sunday's record, several of whose witnessed the massacre and robbery of the rich, by a needless display of the police and military force.

Senator Sherman of Minnesota is authority for the statement that the Union Pacific Council at Baltimore will not touch upon the Presidential question. The council will take action Thanksgiving Day, when it will hold its fourth annual session, to consume its trade in the Republic.

One of the most interesting points in the forthcoming report of the Controller of the Treasury will be the one which shows that the corruption of the back dividends amounted to the year ending Jan. 31, 1884, to about $30,000,000. This is two to half than was anticipated at the beginning of the year.

Fourteen partisans of Sunday's gate, whose shots were duly noticeable in the fight, show a considerable destruction of property and an out of dollars to the railroad and telegraph companies, but no loss of life. The pitching will occur, animal down upon Chicago Sunday night mechanical very appropriately yesterday.

The clearing-house returns for New York last week were $102,711,000, a decrease of 10.8 per cent as compared with the returns for the corresponding week in 1883. The eight cities aggregated $46,000,000, or a decrease of 9.7 per cent. Outside of New York the falling off as compared with the corresponding period in 1883 was 8 per cent.

A mob of Prohibitionists attacked and demolished 9 saloons at Shenandoah, O., Saturday night, almost the entertainers, a saloonkeeper's daughter, until he became unconscious, and earlier the contents of the saloon into the street and burned them. Chapin's keystone machine to his fears, and the authorities are preparing to make a interesting for his assailants.

Of the recent strokes in Cumberland County, Illinois, a census-loss of the public were spared at 7 a. m. and 10 o'clock, at Greenfield, but before 2 o'clock. As although 9/2 probably be made to throw out from time on the ground that they are the 9/2, the polls better been opened an hour earlier than they had done. In the fact, should they be thrown out, the result would be a sharp Republican State Senator and an additional Republican Representative in the Thirty-second General Assembly as well as to give Robertson, Republican, a third, majority over Lindley, Democrat, in the Eighth Congressional District.

The Chicago produce markets were moderately active yesterday. Wheat was stronger, with good buying on outside account, cash and regular trade, and provisions were. In wheat and with Saturday part about the same range, but closed, cash trade brisker being, wheat is most higher, cash were 1¢ more lower, cash closed, 1/2 to most lower, barley quiet, and flaxseed 1 cent lower.

In accordance with an order from Judge Blodgett County Clerk Ryan yesterday granted the petitioners and half-orphans of the Special Precinct of the Eighteenth Ward, which were submitted to the committee of the Federal grand jury. He failed to bring or hand the ballots, however, although they were included in the subpoenas, and his explanation to his report to be such the subject of further argument before Judge Blodgett today.

Walt has been declared between Jeff Davis and Gen. W. T. Sherman. Grant wrote up the latter publicly referred to the ex-President of the Confederacy as a countryman who had advanced to assure the prosperity of the country. Davis comes up first to a card denouncing the allegation as false and calling him. Sherman a "liar" in saying he wished to destroy the liberties or rights of States. The ex-President, etc., winds up by challenging the hero of the "March Through Georgia" to make good his statements or "wear the brand of a base slanderer." Gen. Sherman, in an interview, takes occasion to say that "Mr. Davis will get all he wants in due time."

When the Cook County Canvassing Board reached the Cook County canvass yesterday at Springfield it was discovered that they were entitled to only County Clerk Ryan, a minority of the Cook County Canvassing Board. The discovery brought a sudden stop to the work for the day, and the matter was referred to Attorney-General McCartney for an opinion. County-Clerk Ryan has been given an opportunity to make the necessary correction if he so desires. There are two theories as to the reason for the omission of the Justice names from the returns. It is suggested on the one hand that the "information" is in pursuance of a Democratic scheme to leave out the Cook County vote entirely, the effect of which, it is said, would be to make the Senate a tie and give the Democrats a majority of votes in the House, leaving them without a quorum, however, in case the Republicans chose to break it. It has been further suggested, on the other hand, that if the canvass are thrown out it may open up to the advantage of the Republicans, since a special election would necessarily be ordered, at which the Republicans would start at less one term and secure a Senator and an additional Representative in the House course, while the seats in the Sixth District would have an opportunity to prosecute at no uncertain way to between Lowden and Isham.

Mayor Hall, one of the smartest and most refined establishment lawyers in the State, in commenting upon the Lowden-Isham case, takes the following position in regard to the discretion and power of the Governor to grant or refuse the certificate of election:

"There is no power on earth that can compel Gov. Hamilton when his official conscience shall tell him that there is a lack of consistency with the facts to issue a certificate. The Governor is a constitutional branch of the State Government, and is not amenable in the courts or subject to their action as to his official acts. It should be a matter of indifference with the Chicago Board of Canvassers or a certificate of election is not, and if I were Governor of the State, under the evidence that I understand will be presented to the case I would simply take the fact to the Senate.

In this case Gov. Hamilton has had visible evidence of the fraud sought to be perpetrated on the people of the Sixth Senatorial District. He has seen the forged ballots, with the "Isham" written over the "Lowden," and all the other earmarks of fraud. Will a give the right figure to do unto men under the forged seal, which now appears to the naked eye. If more evidence were needed it is had from the affidavits published statements of some of the most respected and wealthy citizens of Chicago, who swear that they voted for Lowden in the Second Precinct of the Eighteenth Ward. There are 107 of them—more than the votes the judges have returned for Lowden—and there are over 200 more who will make affidavits to the same fact. And yet the Canvassing Board, ignoring the fact that a forged return is simply to intent of all, proceeded to defiance of law concerns, and public decency to give the morally weak the sanction of their official approval. Under this state of facts, Gov. Hamilton's duty is plain. He should refuse the certificate to Broad, who was not elected, and grant it to Lowden, who was elected. There is fraud enough in the Sixth Senatorial District to vitiate the election of both Lowden and Broad, and grant it to Lowden, who was elected. There is fraud enough in the Sixth Senatorial District to vitiate the election of both, and grant it to Lowden, who was elected. There is fraud enough in the Sixth Senatorial District to vitiate the election of both, and grant it to Lowden, who was elected.

IN GENERAL.

A Green Bay opinion was received yesterday by a South Water street dealer.

Among twenty-one true bills returned by the grand jury yesterday was the indictment of W. H. Lyle, the engineer who mashed Henry Kruse, a locomotive engineer, flat, a on the Fort Wayne road.

The Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Company sold to the city yesterday $50,000, $40,000 to be applied on account for the new depot's portion of the Chicago avenue viaduct, and $10,000 for the Grove street viaduct.

The Council Committee on Streets declared the condemnation of Green, Alice and Hamilton, the Mayor's nominees for Police and Inspectors, until they could answer before a quo warranto in the Supreme Court. The Judge was summoned to the Committee.

John Thomas was found lying at the corner of Clark and Division streets early yesterday morning, penniless and with gore and whiskey. He was taken to the Chicago Avenue Station, but Justice Rogers said his case was too small for him. Thomas was formerly a grocer on Division street.

C. H. C. Hyer, a postal clerk on the Lake Shore Road, was arrested yesterday at Geneva, Wis., by Inspectors Hunt and Bowman of the postal service. He had been stealing money-letters, the inspectors say, but a few days ago Hyer believed the arrest would be made, and committed suicide by taking poison.

The Council Committee on Fire and Water passed on the two ordinances appropriating $40,000 for additional hydrants. The portion of the Conference Exchange asking for an ordinance to prevent the sale of wood or fuel by weight at a discount was laid on the table. A request for the opening of Jefferson street, was referred to the Lake Superintendent for the proper ordinance.

There were 109 deaths in the city last week, an increase of seven over the preceding week. Fifty-one were the corresponding week in 1875, and forty-nine the corresponding week in 1874. The principal causes of death were: Consumption, 21; cholera infantum, 11; cholera, 11; cholera-infantum, 11; typhoid fever, 6; cholera-morbus, 5; cholera, 5; cholera-infantum, 5. The deaths were 54 M.

William Miller, a painter, was engaged in decorating the inside of a vault at Hutchinson & Bowling's brewery, at the corner of Division and Franklin streets, when a part of stored beer was ejected from the capillary which he was using to bore holes. Miller was badly burned on the face and eyes and on the arms. He was taken to the house of the Sisters of the Holy Family.

At the Presbyterian ministers' meeting a discussion on "Sabbath Observance," was led by the Rev. W. C. Clark. The general opinion of those who took part was that the observance of the Sabbath was being destroyed by foreign customs. One minister suggested that the Christian people of Chicago form a league for the purpose of boycotting those who, while on earth, violated the Christian laws of the country.

Patrick McCormack, the scalawagger who was shot in Franklin alley, near Harmon court, early Saturday morning by Officer Cornelius Sweeney, died yesterday at the County Hospital. McCormack and Frank Brown had entered Sweeney's room at the rear of the alley on Clark street, and the officer, supposing them to be burglars, fired. Brown was not hurt. McCormack's body was claimed by his friends.

It has been the custom with some citizens on the South Side to stay home on Thanksgiving day, in order to avoid the crowds, according to their habits and going each other. The Common Council proposes to put a stop to this species of cowardly idiocy. Alderman Ellis of the Seventh ward and Alderman Hoffman of the Fifth ward, both of whom are known to be opposed to the custom, will introduce an ordinance in the Council to-night providing that the Thanksgiving proclamation of the Governor shall be observed by the closing of all saloons, groceries, and other places where liquor is sold, and by the suspension of all business except that of a religious character.

David John Dobson and Susan Dobson, charged with living in violation of the seventh commandment at No. 240 Harrison street, had their examination before Justice Scanlan yesterday morning. Both the Dobsons, the evidence showed, were married persons, and had left their families and set up housekeeping together. Mrs. Dobson, the complaining witness, was asked if she had her marriage certificate and she had left it at home, and on other questions put to her Mrs. Dobson showed a disposition to prevaricate. Her husband got out of the box and, pointing to his wife, said: "Your honor would get more information from her if you would put her under oath." The prisoners were bound over in the sum of $500 each to the Criminal Court.

A fatal disaster occurred about a year ago by the falling of the east south wing of the Wisconsin State House, from which the contractor, Knight Bros. & Hall, and other officials in charge of the building refuse to take receipt from W. H. Bingham of this city, which claimed to be being employed to take said charge and responsibility of the remainder of the work, and so to finish the superstructure of the north wing which was found so unsafely built. Gov. Taylor, of Wisconsin, has ordered a commission to investigate the matter, and Mr. Bingham has authorized a statement of the facts, which he has submitted to the Commission.

The passengers of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette train which left Detroit at 8:30 a.m. Saturday were treated to a thrilling experience. Just after the train had passed Ann Arbor, and while running at full speed, the engine suddenly left the track, and, after running a few rods, turned over on its side, dragging the baggage-car and two passenger coaches after it. The engineer, Charles Cook, jumped and escaped with a few bruises. The fireman, Frank Brown, was caught under the engine and scalded to death. The baggage-master, Mr. Hall, was also injured, but not seriously. The passengers were badly shaken up, but escaped with slight injuries.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The City Council met last night with Mayor Harrison in the chair.

Communications ranged themselves from the body on the part of corporations and others to sue counties to have their taxes refunded, and the Board of Review for assessments, and to have the offices of them for Dec. 1, 1876.

A communication was received from the Judges of the Superior Court asking permission to have a room to hold their court in the City Hall, which was referred to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

The County Clerk reported that the amount of money collected for the Police Pension Fund for the month of October was $2,000, and that the total number of names on the pension roll was 200.

The Committee on Claims reported adversely on the claim of Mrs. Ann Hogan for damages for the death of her husband, who was killed by falling into a hole in the sidewalk on Clark street, near Twelfth, on the night of Aug. 15, 1875. The report was adopted.

The Committee on Claims reported adversely on the claim of Mrs. Mary

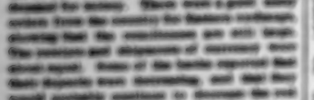
Total for New York exchanges was quoted as follows yesterday:

Chicago, 10% premium.
Boston, 25@30c premium.
St. Louis, 50@75c premium.
Cincinnati, 50@75c premium.
Fort Wayne, $1.25 premium.

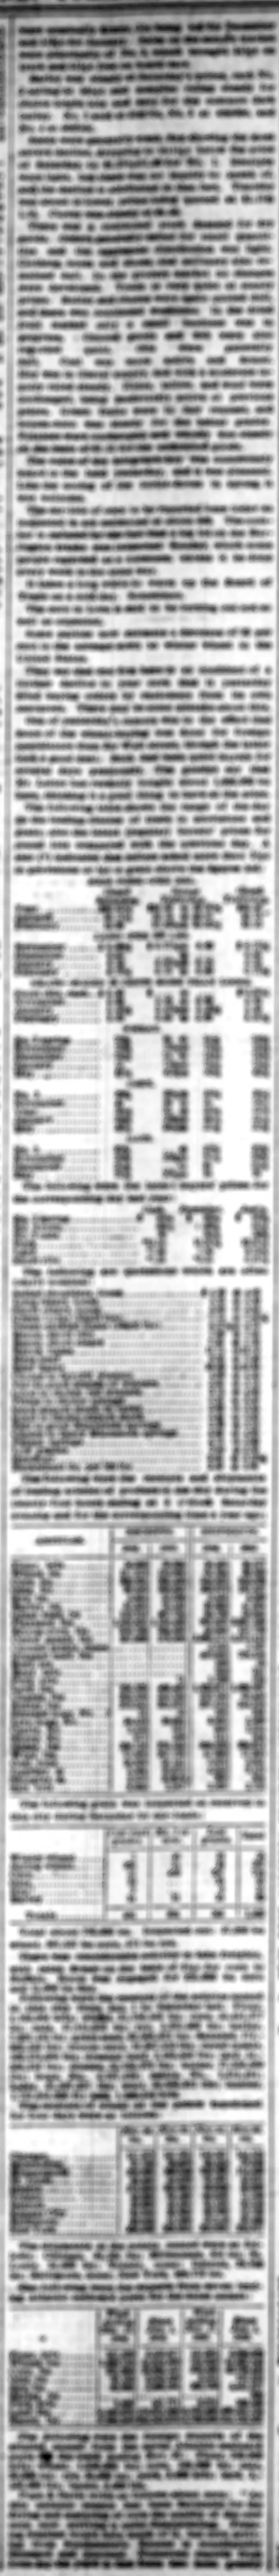
The continued lack of a low interest and consequently increasing tendency to hoarding seem to augur to the professional of an advance in prices in the near future and a positive revival of business during the year. Gold has been exported among a large number of the smaller speculators into the depositories of a bank, and there is a very natural tendency to cease in the hot feeling. While this may be well founded, it is a safe prediction that it will require some serious disturbance to affect the basis of the bulls to sustain. The contrast is to expect this week. Money Clears 6 to 7 per cent for the use from stock exchange collaterals, and 4 to 5 per cent for commercial paper. Sterling is rising in sympathy with the general strength in Continental bills, owing to the fact that the Continental bankers are selling below the cost of production. The export of cotton has ceased, and the cotton crop of cotton has ceased. The movement of the country and the receipt and movement of the grain have begun the good work of re-building. Some of the people who talk in that way will yet have to have lower rates to their lots.

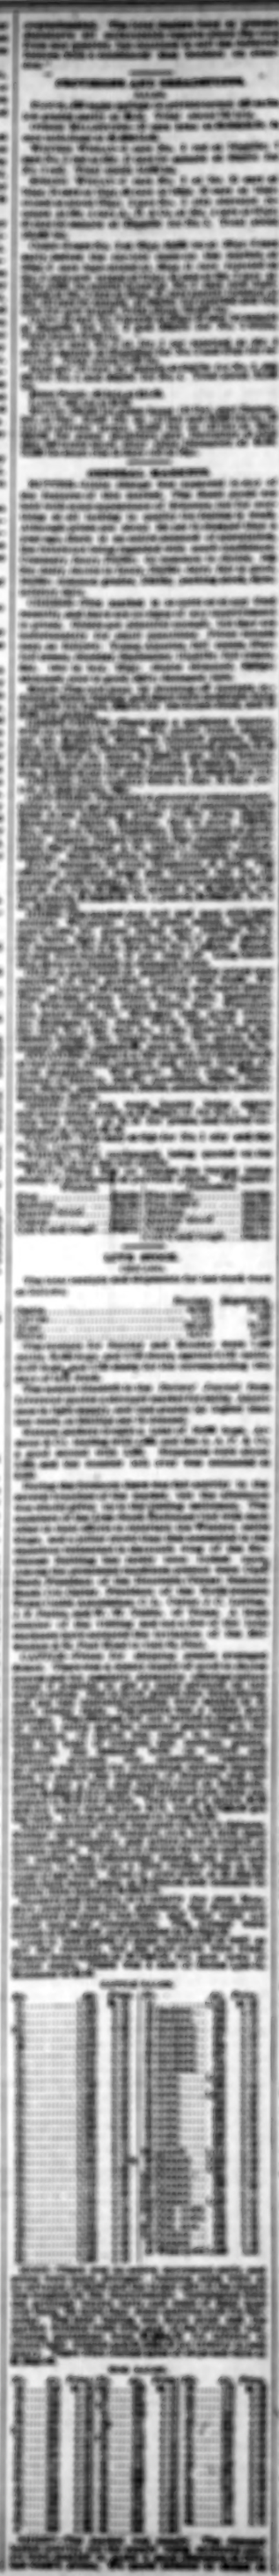
The change in the weather brought into the country to business in this city yesterday, but it was generally thought that the cold was very favorable to trade and that an active week was the beginning effects of it. There was only a fair demand for money. There were a good many orders from the country for Eastern exchange, showing that the remittances are still large. The receipts and shipments of currency were about equal. Some of the banks reported that their deposits were increasing, and that they would probably continue to increase the rest of the year, while other institutions have had an increase in the last week or two, the aggregate in the city is probably falling off. There was no change in the market for foreign bills yesterday, the quotations being as follows:

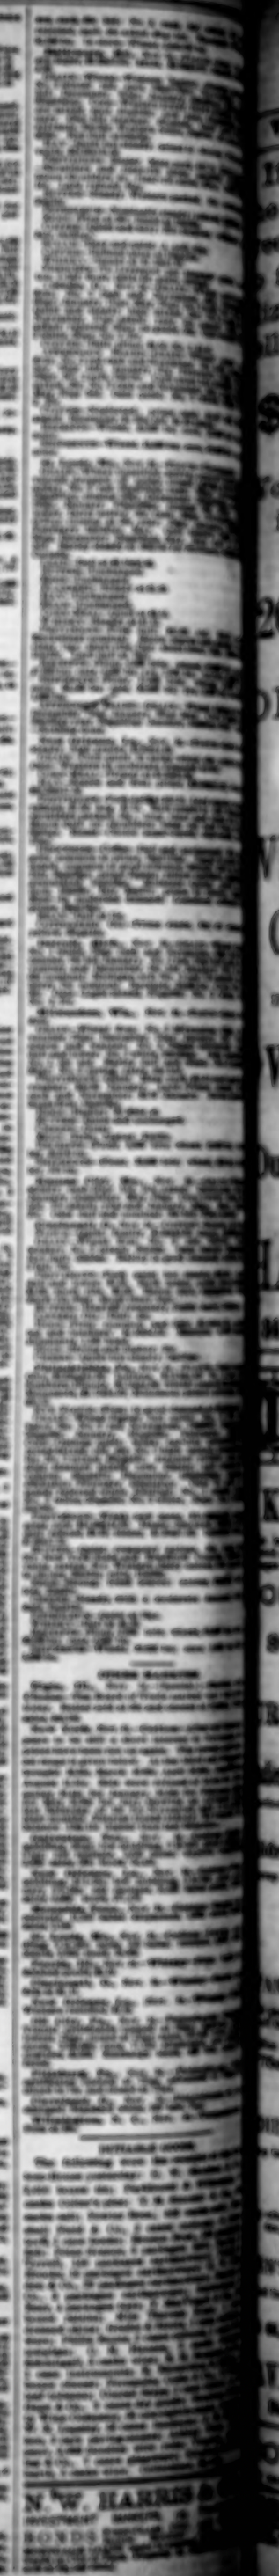


Trade in investment securities has rapidly. The sales at the Chicago Stock Exchange were $15,000 City Railway 7's at 97½, $700 Board of Trade 6's at 97½, $1,000 Lake Shore 7's at 97½, $5,000 Chicago & Northwestern sinking fund 6's at 120½, $5,000 Fort Wayne Railway consol 7's at 124, $5,000 North Chicago Railway 6's at 104½, $2,000 do 6's, 50 shares of Lakeside stock at 72, and 100 shares of Fort Wayne, Virginia & Georgia at 11½ ex div.

The New York stock market was dull, and the principal feature was fluctuations, which were very strong all the latter part of the day, when there were some in active profits. The usual dividend of 1½ per cent was declared on the common and 2 per cent on the preferred, payable Dec. 15. The books close Dec. 1 and reopen Dec. 16. Vanderbilt lines were also declared the usual quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent, but in addition to make the disbursement for that period public. It is, however, better than an expected. Information generally thought that the next weekly report of the earnings of the road will show a considerably smaller decrease in the earnings than those of recent weeks, and that the income of the road will from this time forth run a good deal. There was much talk in Chicago yesterday about the eastern quarter of the Northwest and St. Paul properties. It is proper to remark that the friends of the St. Paul Company have been active and have made considerable money in Chicago circles of late and that their views influenced to a considerable extent the buying of Northwest stock. Some of the St. Paul stock has been bought by Chicago people, and the Northwest is considered quite safe here with Boody at St. Paul stock that they have been holding as an investment and Quaker Northwest. A lively shorts in the New York house, which were the most active and which has caused the bulls to be getting out in the corporation, but brought forty of the stock at the lowest low prices. Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, which opened and closed at 10 favorable, opened at 110½, yesterday and sold off to 110. No good reason for the decline is given. It has been reported that an effort was in progress to settle the unpaid interest, the New York Central and the West Shore, but the Vanderbilt must be the dignity and profession to be rejoicing all overtures. Some of the Pacific Railway men, however, advising the purchase of Louisville shares, which they have not done much of late. It was said that the Grand Trunk had taken the West Shore off its hands at 50 cents on the dollar. It was rumored that the Baltimore & Ohio would advance the rental for the Jersey Central division, the stock of which the Baltimore & Ohio people are said to have been buying for some time. The Union Pacific Road has received $1,600,000 of the land grant bonds it recently advertised for. There was a decrease of $15,000 in the earnings of the Northern Pacific first the second week of November.

The relations of the stock exchanges brokers of this city with those of New York have become most intimate and important, and Chicago is quite a Mecca for the large brokers and operators of the latter city. Mr. Simmons, formerly of Simmons & Wilcox, and Mr. George D. Hopkins were in town yesterday also Mr. Lawson of Lawson & Douglas.






The following were the bidding prices at the Stock Exchange, except where a dagger (†) is placed that the price was asked instead of bid:
